
NORTHEAST DISTRICT ACTIVITY DAY

Over 35 Camden County 4-H'ers, parents, volunteers and staff participated in the Annual Northeast District Activity Day held in Hyde County on June 24th. Youth participating in 4-H Presentations and awards received are as follows:

Grace Sasser: Cloverbud First time presenter

Preston Sasser: Cloverbud

Jesse Sawyer: Cloverbud, First time presenter

Luke Durden: 9-10 year old Chicken Barbeque District Gold

Fallon Dove: 9-10 year old Horse, District Gold, First time presenter

Cheyenne Dove: 11-13 year old Forestry & Wildlife, District Bronze, First time presenter

Amanda Durden: 11-13 year old Beef Cookery, District Bronze

Keith Sasser: 11-13 year old Chicken Barbeque, District Gold, First time presenter

Mark Sasser: 11-13 year old Pork Cookery, District Silver, First time presenter

Carolina Sawyer: 11-13 year old Livestock & Dairy Production, District Silver, State Competitor

Erin Durden: 14-18 year old Soil, Water & the Environment, District Gold, State Competitor

Shelly Rhea: 14-18 year old Veterinarian Science, District Gold, State Bronze

Tessa Spivey: 14-18 year old Career Exploration, District Bronze, First time presenter

Three Camden County 4-H'ers participated in the annual Career Exploration Poster Contest: Fallon Dove, 9-10 year old, County 2nd; Cheyenne Dove, 11-13 year old, County 1st; and Holly Holbrook, 9-10 year old, County 1st.

NORTHEAST DISTRICT 4-H SCIENCE CAMP

Pictured are: Dakota Denney, Patrick Curtis, Sara Brincefield, Joey Lynons, Alessandra Balsler, Samantha Olson, Tori Harvin, Sydney Geary, Greg D'Amico, Anna Clark, Tristen Schuler, Alyssa Overton, Jaedyn Putnam, Emily Longerbeam, Malea Jones, & Lauryn Bray.

Sixteen Camden County youth, along with Mr. William Sawyer, volunteer, and Danelle Barco, attended the Annual Northeast District 4-H Science Camp. Youth participated in the Spacepalooza Curriculum Track or the Biotechnology Track. The Spacepalooza track, campers explored how to plan for a successful mission to Mars, made bottle rockets, learned about space through a portable planetarium, and robotics. The Biotchenology track, campers solved a fictional murder mystery using new investigative techniques, DNA, and forensic science. Campers were also able to interrogate the fictional suspects.

ELECTRIC 4-H CONGRESS

Caroline Sawyer, Barnyard Kids 4-H Club Vice President, completed an Electric Project Record Book and attended NC 4-H Electric Congress held on the campus of UNC-Charlotte, July 13-15th. Danelle Barco, 4-H Agent, attended with Caroline. Over 250 youth were in attendance at this annual event. Caroline was able to participate in various electric workshops, community service project, a trip to Carrowinds Amusement Park and a hot air balloon ride. Please contact Ms. Danelle to learn more about how you can earn this trip next summer!