

March Camden 4-H Newsletter

Learn about submitting a story in our story collection, starting a 2019 project record book, and get ready to sign-up for summer programs this month! Also check out the project record winners in Camden County and what we have been up to with school enrichment.

Summer Programs Registration Opens on March 18th!

All of this rain has us dreaming about the summer. We will be opening registration for several of our 2019 4-H Summer Adventure programs on March 18th. Be sure to check our Facebook and website when registration opens to save your youth's spot.

A few additional activities will be added later the next month.

Project Records, Presentations, and Getting the Most Out of 2019!

Why? How? When? These are questions asked every day about an endless number of topics by the youth in your life. They have never-ending curiosity so let's support them in exploring these topics of interest!

We are focused on providing lots of opportunities for youth to explore any topic they are passionate about. Find out all about great ways for youth to investigate topics they are interested in with 4-H!

Camden County Story Collection Project

Camden 4-H and the Camden County Library are joining together on this exciting project to get youth from across the county published! Any youth in Camden County can submit their story that includes the theme or topic of unity to camdencountystories@gmail.com, or drop it off at the Library. We will create a book from the collection of stories that will be shared with all participants at our May 14th celebration! A permanent copy will also live in the County Library.

Let's get published!

Congratulations to our Project Record Winners in Camden County!

A huge congratulations to all of our youth who completed project records in Camden County in 2018! Their hard work was recognized at our 4-H Achievement Night on February 28th. Below are all the youth that were recognized. Some of the project records will move on to the district level to be judged and are noted with an asterisk (*).

Welcome Marcia Berry to 4-H in Camden County!

We are excited to have Marcia Berry join us in Camden County 4-H as our new 4-H Program Assistant and JCPC Coordinator. Marcia started at the beginning of February and has helped with several 4-H programs so far! She will be managing several skill-centered programs in the coming months. Be sure to welcome her to the Camden 4-H family when you see her.

4-H School Enrichment

Camden County 4-H has been busy in the schools this last month as we've been teaching an after school cooking class at Camden County High School and doing the Junior Master Gardener, Learn, Grow, Eat, & Go! Curriculum in some of the 1st grade classrooms to over 60 youth. These programs are several times each week and have had us making some delicious food! You don't have to miss out on all the fun, you can check out recipes from our Learn, Grow, Eat, & Go! Curriculum with fun online tutorials.

NC State University and N.C. A&T State University work in tandem, along with federal, state and local governments, to form a strategic partnership called N.C. Cooperative Extension.

Extension's 4-H program is the largest youth development organization in North Carolina. We help over 247,000 young people grow into active, contributing citizens each year.

NC State University and N.C. A&T State University commit themselves to positive action to secure equal opportunity regardless of race, color, national origin, religion, political beliefs, family and marital status, sex, age, veteran status, sexual identity, genetic information or disability. NC State, N.C. A&T, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and local governments cooperating.

Accommodation requests related to a disability should be made by 10 days before event to Ali Huber at 252-331-7630 or ali_huber@ncsu.edu.
